Recently, a post claiming that "English is officially excluded from the college and high school entrance exams" has been circulating online. In response, the Beijing Education Committee stated that the reform plan for the college and high school entrance exams in Beijing has not been officially issued, and the overall reform plan by the Ministry of Education is also pending. Nevertheless, the debate over the proper emphasis of English in national education has sparked hot discussions among netizens.

In my opinion, English should continue to be a significant part of national education. As the global lingua franca, English plays a vital role in international communication, research, and business. Proficiency in English enables students to access a wealth of global information and resources, fostering their understanding of the world and enhancing their personal development.

However, it is also important to strike a balance between English education and the preservation of local languages and cultures. English should not overshadow other subjects or local languages.

最近，网上流传着一则帖子，声称“英语正式退出高考和中考”。对此，北京市教委表示，北京市高考改革方案尚未正式出台，教育部的整体改革方案也暂未出台。尽管如此，关于英语在国家教育中应占的比重这一话题还是在网民中引发了热烈的讨论。

在我看来，英语应继续作为国家教育的重要部分。作为全球通用语言，英语在国际交流、研究和商业中起着至关重要的作用。英语流利能够让学生接触到丰富的全球信息和资源，增进他们对世界的理解，提升个人发展。

然而，同时也要在英语教育和保护本地语言及文化之间找到平衡。英语不应盖过其他科目或本地语言。
