:fulfillment　　　　　?fulfillment　　　　?fulfillment

fulfillment　　　　?fulfillment　　?fulfillment　　　?
fulfillment

fulfillment

fulfillment　　　:[f l'f lm nt]

fulfillment

1 n. ; ; ; ;

fulfillment

1 a sense of fulfillment

2 wish fulfillment ;

fulfillment

1 accomplishment n.   ;   ;   ;   ;

2 achievement n.   ;   ;

3 completion n.   ;

4 content n.   ;   ;   ;   ;

5 contentment n.   ;

fulfillment

1 Talking and relating to another is a source of tremendous fulfillment.

     .

2 Third, the fulfillment of work safety control indicators was relatively good.

     .

3 He was willing to face any hardship in fulfillment of his duty.

     .

4 The fulfillment of my dream is apparently as far off as ever.

     .

5 You must value your relationships because they give your fulfillment.

     ,   .

6 I get great joy and fulfillment from helping others.

     .

7 Happiness is the real sense of fulfillment that comes from hard work.

     .

8 I wish you success and fulfillment in the years ahead.

，　　　，　　　．

9　It's a matter of self-fulfillment.

．

10　He attained his own destiny. Then there is fulfillment.

，　　　．

11　This contract is binding subject to the fulfillment of the following conditions.

．

12　And though it requires sacrifice, it brings a deeper fulfillment.

，　　　．

13　So fulfillment of desires is a prerequisite to unity.

．

14　For the youth generation, self-fulfillment and self-expression became very important.

，　　　．

15　More importantly, China's fulfillment of these commitments will firstly benefit itself.

，　　　．

fulfillment

ful fillment　　　　ful fillment　　　fulfillment　　　　　　　https://dict.tjqzz.com/fulfillment